MUR # 6605

June 14, 2012

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing because I have reason and evidence to believe that the Gary Latanich for Congress campaign has committed a violation or violations of the Federal Election Campaign Laws or Commission regulations. The Gary Latanich for Congress campaign did not report a debt to my company on Schedule D for Report #FEC-784152 in apparent violation of 104.3(d); 104.11. Furthermore, we advise your Office that this debt remains in dispute it must be reported on Schedule D. 116.10.

On Jan. 8, 2012, my company, Stanford Campaigns, signed an agreement with Latanich for Congress. Amanda Boulden, the treasurer for Latanich for Congress, signed the contract on behalf of the campaign. (See attached "Services Agreement".)

On Feb. 6, 2012, we received and deposited a check for $2,500 from the Latanich for Congress campaign. This check cleared the bank and is not part of the disputed amount.

On Feb. 21, 2012, we invoiced the Latanich for Congress campaign the amount of $8,765.84. In that amount was the remaining $7,500 of our fee plus $1,265.84 in research and travel expenses. (See attached Invoice #1626.)

On Mar. 19, 2012, we received a check from the Latanich for Congress campaign signed by Amanda Boulden, the campaign treasurer for Latanich. The check was for $7,500 and postdated as per an informal agreement with then campaign manager, Mr. Peter Grumbles, whereupon we turned over the research report on Clark Hall to Latanich for Congress.

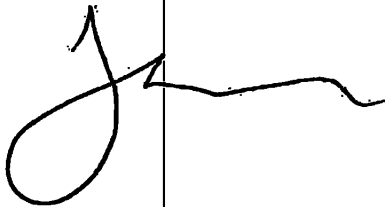

We deposited the second check on Apr. 6, 2012.

On Apr. 10, 2012, Chase returned the Latanich for Congress check for insufficient funds. (See Chase document SEQ #99013406.)

The amount of $8,765.84 is still in owed to Stanford Campaigns and should be reflect on the campaign's FEC reports. All of the facts described herein are known to me personally.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Jason Stanford
